

Vet Nurse Connect Conference

Saturday 25th April 2026

To be held at the RVC's Hawkshead Campus, Hawkshead Lane, North Mymms, Herts AL9 7TA

Programme

	Lecture topics	Hands-on practical workshops (limited spaces)
08:15 - 08:45	Registration and refreshments
08:45 - 09:00	Welcome address
09:00 - 10:00	Blood transfusions No need to be so bloody dramatic: Handling transfusions with confidence - Charlotte Russo	Nutritional calculations Translating nutrition into nursing: Calculating patient nutritional requirements - Gina Parkes
10:00 - 10:30	Tea/Coffee break
10:30 - 11:30	Tubes, drains and lines Access all areas - Elle Haskey	Microscopy of blood cells More than just a drop: The diagnostic power of the perfect blood smear - Nicola Read
11:30 - 12:30	Anaesthesia complications Anaesthetic complications in small animals: From red flags to recovery - Lisa Angell	Interactive case-based medical nursing - Kelly Druce
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 14:15	Nursing patients with endocrine disease From crisis to control: Understanding hyper and hypoadrenocorticism in canine patients - Kelly Druce	Suturing skills Stitch by stitch: Building confidence in suturing - Jessica Gilby
14:15 - 15:15	Exotics nursing What's in the box? - A crash course on how to triage and nurse exotics in general practice - Abigail Edis	CPR Crash course! Essential hands on CPR training for vet nurses - Rosie Wignall
15:15 - 15:45	Tea/Coffee break
15:45 - 16:45	End of life care When healing isn't a cure: Embracing comfort and dignity in end of life care - Nicola Read	ECGs Don't skip a beat – Understanding ECGs in veterinary practice - Ana Costa
16:45 - 17:00	Closing remarks and farewell
17:00	Optional tour of the Queen Mother Hospital for Animals (QMHA)

Proudly supported by:

